Taking You to the Next Level

Building Partnerships

Dorfman Abrams Music is more than your accountant, we are a part of your team. We get to know our clients and understand what is important so we can provide solutions to help overcome challenges and attain goals. As our clients most trusted advisor and independent resource, they rely on us for strategic, relevant and timely solutions.

Goal Oriented

We start by understanding your goals and identifying the obstacles that keep you up at night. Our team works closely with you to establish short and long term objectives, and meets regularly to assess results and modify strategies.

Beyond the Basics

You should expect more from your CPA than just compliance support. Dorfman Abrams Music will help you assess and manage risk, identify opportunities for refinement and educate your management team on the key indicators necessary to manage the organization.
